Reporter Convicted For Drunkenness, It's Only Test Case

ASHLAND, April 10.—Edward J. Ryan, Akron newspaper reporter, was "convicted" for driving while intoxicated but received no penalty today.

The reason was that he agreed, to become a "border-line" intoxication case for an experimental trial sponsored by the Ashland college sociology department.

Judge Lee Skeel of Cleveland "convicted" Ryan after an unusual trial late yesterday after which the audience approved, 71 to 37.

Dr. Herman Gunn, who testified he subjected Ryan to tests which he advocated for convicting drivers in "border-line" cases, said the reporter had consumed 12.65 ounces of whisky.

A friend of the defendant testified Ryan had "only two bottles of beer" before his "arrest" and a physician testified Ryan took an overdose of medicine which made him nervous.

When the "trial" was over, Ryan admitted he drank 13 ounces of whisky.

Chapeaux in the Russian Mode

Three Models Reminiscent of the Days of the Romanoffs

By MARIE MAROT

WHAT with the delightfully gay Russian operetta "Balalaika" standing staid London audiences "on ear", some of the newest American hats are reminiscent of the days when the colorful Slavs swaggered through St. Petersburg. The three chapeaux pictured today reflect the vivid blaze of military and Oriental hat silhouettes that marked the days of the Romanoffs.

Left, below, is a high-crowned visor hat, fashioned of cognac yellow straw. Trimming, in true Russian fashion, is set forth in a chiffon scarf in shades of navy and wine. The scarf itself cascades down the center back, to be draped around the shoulders after circling the throat. Right, below, is a straw toque of blue-violet, set off by a scarf of pale and fuchsia pink chiffon that ties behind and falls, Ascot style, under the chin. In the hat, top, left, a flat turban of navy shantung, the Oriental brim edge is rolled of champagne yellow, wine and delphinium blue crepe. The hat keeps to its eastern tradition with its certain veil of sheer mesh.

LISBON, April 10.—Damages totaling $5,600 are asked in an action brought Friday in common pleas court by William Inboden, East Palestine, against Vera A. Poulton, R. F. D., Columbiana.

The plaintiff charges Mrs. Poulton with responsibility for an auto accident occurring in Columbiana Sept. 24, 1936. He says he was proceeding cautiously on a detour in the village when a car operated by the defendant struck his machine.

Inboden alleges permanent injuries resulted from the mishap. For these he asks $5,000 damages. The balance of the amount claimed, he states, is due him for damages to his car.

"There is sin in the world. Its presence cannot be denied. The origin of sin is traced back to the disobedience of our first parents. Everything that God made was good. Man had the power of choice and this made the possibility of sin entering into the world. The work of the tempter, Satan, is plainly seen in the record of Holy Scriptures. He was the influence that led Adam and Eve from trust and obedience to God. So sin entered the life of the human race."

Morning worship, 11; sermon by the pastor.

"To describe Jesus takes many word pictures. His meaning to all the world is so far beyond complete understanding that humanity can never fully apprehend Him. As the Good Shepherd, Jesus has a purpose in every human life. This relationship implies protection and provision. It must also include chastisement. The shepherd must not allow wayward sheep to destroy the morale of the whole flock. Jesus as the Good Shepherd is a tender thought to every Christian."

Bill Terry Says Feller Should Win 30 Games This Year

Leads In Team and Doubles Events of ABC Tournament Change Hands Last Night

Krakow Furniture Quintet of Detroit Rolls Into First Place In Five-Man Event With 3,118 Total; Passaic Bowler Cop Doubles Lead

NEW YORK, April 10.—Although there's more than three weeks—four big week-ends—to go before the curtain falls on the 1937 American Bowling Congress tourney, fans today were hailing the Krakow Furniture quintet of Detroit as probably the first of the new champions to clinch a title.

The team won't get the prize until hundreds of other good teams have had a chance to shoot at their 3,118 total, but on the basis of past performances that figure looks good.

Not in ten years of A. B. C. competition had a team rolled so high a score until the Detroiters came along last night to post games of 929, 1109 and 1080. The team they ousted from the lead, the Passaic A. C. of Syracuse, N. Y., had scored 3,045 the third day of the tournament and held the top for nearly a month. Last year the Falls City Hi-Bros of Indianapolis won with 2,893.

The same squad that produced the new leaders brought some of the best bowling of the tourney as Nick's Fender Body team of Akron, rolled a 2,966 score to take seventh place and the five Augustus brothers of Hazleton, Pa., posted 2,931 and failed to place among the top ten.

The change in the five-man lead came after John Horan and John Seebach of Passaic, N. J., went to the top of the two-man division with a 1,322 total, ousting the New York veterans, Jimmy Smith and Mike Debridget.

ASK WRESTLING PROBE IN CINCY

Councilman Claims Grappling Game Has Degenerated Lately

CINCINNATI, April 10.—Ross Leader, veteran wrestling promoter, smiled today at charges by Councilman Nicholas Klein that wrestling had "degenerated into sadistic spectacles," and—smiling more broadly—declared belief that "Nick's a candidate for some office, maybe the supreme court."

Klein, who told city council that professional boxing and wrestling "was being killed by the managers," declared himself disgusted enough to "demand an investigation."

Furthermore, Klein asserted, in place of a referee who was "deaf and dumb," we now have one who is so near-sighted he cannot see what is going on."

Leader, genial 200-pounder, said he had favored Klein with passes to Cincinnati wrestling shows but added "from now on, he pays his $15."

"We read in the papers that he's the champion letter-writer in council," declared Leader, "and I'm inclined to think right now that he's merely seeking publicity."

Klein, outspoken Republican member of the eight-man council, said he would urge the council's law committee to take corrective action on what he termed the "referee situation," and that unless a new one were appointed, he would demand an investigation.

The old Graeco-Roman art of wrestling, he contended, "was bonafide and not to be compared with the modern 'grunt and groan' exhibitions."

"Sadistic natures are aroused," Klein asserted, adding "women fans are more easily deceived than men."

Training Camp Briefs

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—The New York Yankees' exhibition winning streak of 13 straight may have the effect of ending the holdout of Pitcher Red Ruffing. The wins indicate they are ready to take the American league apart again, and the chances are Red won't let a $10,000 salary difference stand in the way of getting a fat series cut.

LONGVIEW, Tex.—Paul Waner, outfielder and the National league's No. 1 batter, ended a long holdout and re-joined the Pittsburgh Pirates today at an estimated $15,000 to $18,000 a year.

SPARTANBURG, S. C.—The old injury jinx beset the Cincinnati Reds today as they came here for a game with Birmingham. Charley Gelbert, regular second sacker, was out with a charleyhorse; Alex Kampouris, last year's keystone guard, was hobbling about with a badly bruised left leg.

FINE BLUFF, Ark.—It looks as if Joe Heving, a veteran rookie who specializes in a sinker and a sidearm curve, may earn a job as a regular relief hurler with the Cleveland Indians.

ALBANY, Ga.—The Cardinals, homeward bound, stopped off here today for a game with Albany, one of the club's farms. Mike Ryba was to open on the mound.

CUBA TO SEND LIKELY HEAVY TO RING WARS

Manager Guitierrez Believes Protege Holds Promise of Greatness

NEW YORK, April 10.—Luis Guitierrez, Cuban fight manager, is back in the United States again with a pair of brown-skinned boxers, hoping to reap another fortune on their flashing fists and speedy legs. This time Guitierrez has Cuban Luis, a fine heavyweight prospect, and the Havana Kid, a featherweight.

For 12 years this dapper expatriate has been bringing Cuban boxers to the states. His last successes were Kid Chocolate and Black Bill, both of whom climbed to the heights and then faded into obscurity. "The Keed," as Luis calls Chocolate, is also here—trying for a comeback. But the legs which carried him to 169 consecutive victories and the featherweight and the junior lightweight crowns are not as agile as they once were.

Black Bill, who once had a shot at the flyweight title, is dead. His health cracked, his eyes went bad and he died penniless two years ago in Harlem after an operation on his eyes.

Guitierrez expects to build a new fortune on the rolling shoulders of Cuban Luis. The fellow punches well, he is young and the manager figures he will be a great prospect some day. The Havana Kid is another class article. Guitierrez figures in a year he will be Chocolate's successor—and Luis should know, for he is a most shrewd hand at taking raw pugilistic material and carefully nursing it into championship timber.

Guitierrez, after the fights one night, sat and talked about some of his fighters. Particularly Cuban Luis.

"I would once have said Cuban Luis was a great fighter," Luis said. "But the passing years have taught me much. I can see a man and know when he hits with the power of a mule and has courage. But I cannot look into the stars and foretell the evil which will come to him outside the ropes."

"Take Kid Chocolate. I knew he would fall when time became heavy along his arms, but I thought he would win fights for a long time. I boasted of his prowess and then the evil star stopped in the darkness above him. His health broke down in the middle."

"The gloves of his enemies did not stop him, however. It was one of those things which could happen to anyone. It is thus I say that Cuban Luis is a prospect of the brightest. A man who has the punch and the jaw of rock. He should go far and make much money. Yet, I cannot control the stars. He must work out his destiny."

DELAWARE, April 10.—Taking advantage of several misplays, the University of Michigan scored 13 runs on seven hits in the fifth inning to defeat Ohio Wesleyan 15 to 2 here yesterday.

Breezy Briefs Of Sport From Brietz To You

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, April 9.—When Coach John Kobs of the Michigan State baseball team calls on George to do it, he has to step back into the dugout to avoid the rush.

You can get even money on no fewer than seven tossers who answer that moniker, rally around Broadway that Mike Jacobs puts on a Barney Ross-Pedro Montanez fight this summer. Persons close to "Old Fox" Clark Griffith say he thinks Al Simmons may mean a second place finish for his Senators.

Marty McManus, veteran American league infielder, has caught on with Albany in the N. Y.-Penn loop. Ellsworth Vines says two more years of pro tennis will be enough for him. The cubans called Carl Hubbell's screw ball "tormenta bola." Bernie Bierman will be in charge of football classes at the University of Montana's first big time coaching school, June 21-26. Joe Cronin is thinking of letting young Bobby Doerr, the Coast league sensation, lead off for the Red Sox this year. The Florida State league, with a slaver limit of 14 men, will play a 154-game schedule, including 14 scheduled Sunday double headers. Is that going to be a tough league for pitchers?

It looked like old times to see Dana X. Bible turn up for the first spring practice session at Nebraska, now at Texas U. Bible happened to be visiting at Lincoln and just couldn't stay away.

Old Travis Jackson, who used to annihilate fast ball pitching with the best of them, says he'd rather hit against Dizzy Dean than Van Mungo any and every day in the week. It was a break for Pitcher Jim Tobin when the Yankees switched him from their New York to Oakland farm. The longer Coast league season means an extra pay check or two, and Jim lives in Oakland and can walk from his home to the ball park.

Yankee "Siege Gun" in Action

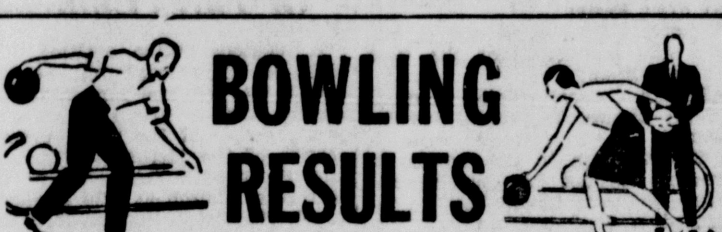

New York Yankees, world champions of 1936, are out to share another title and one of the reasons why they're optimistic about repeating is George Selkirk, slugging outfielder, who was caught by the cameraman at St. Petersburg, Fla., pointing one of Rookie La Rocca's pitches into the bleachers.

BOWLING RESULTS

The Electric Furnace picked on the last-place Gas Co. to win three games at the Masonic temple alleys last night and defend its slim half-game lead in the American Bowling league.

In other league matches, the third-place Ohio Edison won two out of three games from the fourth-place Fernengel's Colts; Denings won three from the Salem Firemen and the Sanitary Shop took two out of three from Mullins Press Room. Miss Stella Smith was tops again last night in the Grate Ladies' league at the Grate Recreation alleys, rolling games of 176, 168 and 200 for a splendid 544 series.

NEW YORK GOLF UNIT APPROVES STYMIE RULING

Sets Own Regulation For One Year Trial In Tournaments

NEW YORK, April 13.—The New York State Golf association entered the controversy over the stymie today by ruling that for one year in its match play tournaments a ball lying within 12 inches of the cup or within 12 inches of the opponent's ball may be lifted at the option of either player.

At present under United States Golf association rules, a ball may be lifted in match play only if it is within six inches of the other ball. The New York rule, a compromise between retaining or abolishing the stymie, was described by Edward E. Wyman, president of the association, as "an experiment." He said it had the sanction and the interest of the U. S. G. A.

The new rule reads as follows: "In match play, when both balls lie on the putting green and the ball nearer to the hole lies within 12 inches of the cup or of the other ball (the distance in either case to be measured from their nearest points), the ball lying nearer to the hole may, at the option of either the player or the opponent, be lifted until the other ball is played, and the lifted ball shall then be replaced as near as is possible to the place where it lay." Wyman said the executive committee of the New York association had decided the stymie definitely should have a place in match play golf.

Several sectional and state golf associations including the Western, California, Arkansas, and Massachusetts groups, have abolished the stymie.

HI SCHOOL GIRL WINS 10TH RACE

Helen Perry Smashes Record In Taking First In Swim Event

CLEVELAND, April 10.—Helen Perry, 17-year-old high school senior, scored her tenth straight swimming victory and won her sixth district A. A. U. title in an indoor meet last night.

Smashing the senior women's 220-yard free-style standard, Miss Perry thrashed Ruth Blair as district champion with a 2:49.2 race—bettering the old record of two minutes, 51 seconds.

The youthful East High swimmer will compete in the 100-yard back stroke in the A. A. U. women's national championships at Chicago next Saturday.

Bob Hoffman, state Y. M. C. A. 220-yard free style champion from Canton, annexed his fifth straight A. A. U. district title by winning his specialty. He holds three senior and two junior crowns, and won in two minutes, 29.4 seconds followed by two other Canton mermen—Bill Stiers and Jack Roderick, in order.

Bill Griffin, Kenyon college freshman, came within two-fifths of a second of equalling the 100-yard district back stroke record as he triumphed over Bill Ulrich of Canton in 1:05.4.

Wrestling Champ Offers To Meet Louis, Braddock

COLUMBUS, April 10.—All this talk about whether, when, why and where Jimmy Braddock will fight Joe Louis or Max Schmeling for the heavyweight title is very irritating to Billy Sandow, japper manager of Everett Marshall, who claims the heavy wrestling title.

"The fight-guys," according to Sandow, are giving the public the run-around, and are keeping the fight situation up in the air because "I'll get 'em a lot of publicity." Sandow, who flies from publicity like a piece of steel jumps away from a magnet, opined that maybe Braddock would fight someone, some time, somewhere, but he asked "what will it mean? What will it prove?"

"Those guys," Sandow said, "are a couple of sissies when compared to top-notch wrestlers. I'm willing to post $10,000 for mixed bouts between Marshall and Louis and Braddock, and if Marshall doesn't beat both of them in the same ring inside a half hour, Louis and Braddock can split the $10,000 and take all the gate receipts."

Marshall has been in tip-top condition for almost six years, without ever getting out of trim. The fighters can't take it that way. They have a fight, and then lay off for months, and it takes them weeks to get back anywhere near fighting condition.

Fight Results

CHICAGO—Chet Levere, 175, of Chicago, outpointed Johnny Eriavec, 180, Duluth (10).

NEW ORLEANS—Kid Chocolate, 128, former world featherweight champion, outpointed Frankie (Kid) Anselm, 124, Philadelphia (10).

INDIANAPOLIS—Johnny Henry Lewis, 181, light heavyweight champion of the world, knocked out Babe Davis, 205, St. Louis (8).

Iowa Schoolboy Better Than Expected, Manager Of N.Y. Giants Declares

Terry Claims If Feller Can Hold His Pace for Nine Innings, He'll Win 30 Games, Providing Indians Don't Kick 'em Away; Faster Than Johnson

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 10.—"Memphis Bill" Terry, manager of New York's Giants, boarded the Bob Feller bandwagon today and declared the 18-year-old Iowa farm boy should win 30 games this season.

Bill has had plenty of opportunity to study the young ace of the Cleveland pitching staff in exhibition games. Feller has pitched 11 innings against the Giants without giving up a hit.

"He's better than I ever expected him to be," Terry said. "They don't come up like that very often. Why he pitches like an old-timer already. You'd hardly believe a kid like that could be so fast."

"If he can hold the pace for nine innings he should win 30 ball games for Cleveland. That is—if they don't kick 'em away for him."

Bill said, however, that Feller's wildness was one reason his men failed to get a hit.

"My players didn't take any chances of getting hurt the way he was throwing," he said. "You know, he beamed Leiber and hit Davis in the back. What's the use of taking a no-hitter up there and taking a chance of injuries in spring games?"

Bill was asked if Feller had the speed of Walter Johnson.

"He's faster than Johnson was when I batted against him, but Walter was slipping then. There's no way of telling. He showed us a curve ball and change of pace, but he doesn't need these as long as he can throw the ball the way he does." Feller, who stopped here briefly enroute to Pine Bluff, Ark., for an exhibition game, declared with confidence—"I expect to win every game I pitch and I'll be mighty disappointed if I lose."

RELIEF "ARMY" IS THROWN OUT

Occupies Church After Being Dragged From Governor's Office

Governor Davey ordered the national guard to be ready to set up soup kitchens in the hardest-pressed areas next Thursday if the legislature failed to agree on a program before that time. Widespread opposition met his order.

Awaits Senate Return

A measure to provide $7,000,000 for the rest of this year and $8,000,000 for 1938 awaits the return of the senate Monday with a recommendation for passage by the special senate relief committee and would require local matching of $2,000,000. A prediction that it would be enacted early next week came from Sen. Bernard J. McCloskey (D-Cuyahoga), committee chairman.

Ben Gray of Cleveland, leader of the capitol sit-down group until he was placed in Franklin county jail, was quoted by deputies as saying he was a candidate for state senator in Mahoning county on the Communist ticket in 1934. He is president of the alliance.

Others jailed were John Monarch, 54, of Dayton, quoted by deputies as saying he was a Socialist candidate for the Michigan governorship last year; Jessie Josephson, 21, of Cleveland; Morris Jaffa, 31, of Cleveland; Mrs. Johnnie Williams, 40, Cleveland Negro; and John Chiller, 32, of Cleveland.

The original group occupying the governor's office numbered only 30 while about 70 camped at the state fairgrounds. All were fed by the national guard at the governor's order.

The sit-down delegation grew to 70 late yesterday when asked to vacate so the room could be cleaned. Several were Negroes.

A crowd gathered as eviction appeared imminent.

Then Chief Deputy Sheriff Ralph Garner appeared and read the riot act. Gray refused to lead the evacuation. Many seated themselves on the floor and shouted "you leave us alone!"

Then a force of deputies grabbed the sit-downers, jerking and pushing them toward the door. Some had to be carried. Blows were struck.

Within a few minutes the entire group had been forced out. Their belongings were tossed out a window.

vassed at the Brotherhood headquarters Thursday by Mary Hanley, James Magill and O. E. Hall and today the mails carried copies of the returns, addressed to the officers and participating contestants of the locals.

The results of the ballot, came on the heels of an announcement of a new wage contract negotiated by the Brotherhood with the United States Potters' association.

Granting wage raises of 9 to 15 per cent, the new pact also contained the following provisions:

The manufacturers agreed not to extend night work. Night shifts will be employed only when absolutely necessary.

A joint committee has been appointed to investigate the time allowed for lunch and cleaning up. They will make a report at the next wage conference when an attempt will be made for uniformity.

A joint committee was appointed to investigate day and piece work rates in chinaware. The committee has been given the authority to make adjustments and place in class C employees found to be working for less than are paid in East Liverpool district.

Ware will be delivered to stamers and liners at their benches. A minimum rate of 56 cents an hour was agreed upon for male employees.

Investigate Dispute

The decorating kiln and "iron horse" kilnplating disputes at the Limoges in Sebring will be investigated. Every effort will be made for shop settlements.

Day and night work shifts, after six months' employment, agree to equal division of shifts.

All dippers at the Limoges in Sebring to receive equal division of work.

Time and one-half will be paid for all Sunday work to day wage employees, whose labor is not necessary to maintain the present plan of operation.

One-fourth of a cent a dozen increase on the base price will be paid jigglers for seven and eight-inch plain and festoon, semi-porcelain plates.

The Sterling Chinaware (Wellsville) decal dispute will be taken up on the plant.

The circular kiln, carrying out and chinaware size list committee are to be continued.

A committee will investigate the cup jiggling dispute at Taylor, Smith and Taylor in Chester. If conditions are found to be the same as in other shops cup jigglermen will pay their help the same as other jigglermen pay.

Conditions are to be improved in the chain stove room at Alliance so finishers can earn an amount equal to the finishers at Limoges.

Budget Balancing Is Problem Unless Expenses Are Cut

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Fiscal authorities said today substantial reductions in expenditure estimates probably would be necessary if the administration is to achieve an approximate balance between income and outgo in the 1938 fiscal year.

President Roosevelt will revamp budget forecasts in a message to congress next week, taking into account a drop in this year's revenues under estimates.

Relief outlays—heart of the controversy over whether the budget can be balanced—were discussed at a conference between Mr. Roosevelt and governors and other representatives of six states late yesterday.

Officials reported the group sought to prevent a sharp cut in relief rolls this fiscal year. After the conference, however, there were reports the President indicated the federal financial set-up necessitated a scaling down of works progress administration rolls.

Blacksmiths Elect

DAYTON, April 10.—S. M. Gram of Dennison was elected president of the Ohio Blacksmiths and Welders' association yesterday. Other officers, named at an annual convention, were: Charles Fox, vice president, and Harvey E. Frey, secretary-treasurer, both of Tiffin.

LONDON—Seventy per cent of the 275,000,000 passengers who ate in the London and North Eastern railway dining cars last year took tea rather than coffee with their meals. Chefs, from their 6 feet by 18 foot kitchens, served an average of 10,000 meals on each of the 275 restaurant buffet cars.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, April 10.—Official forecast of a bumper winter wheat crop in the United States this year depressed wheat prices only momentarily early today, and after an early dip the market rallied fractionally.

Although the government prediction of a 656,019,000 bushel harvest, which would be the fifth largest on record, was a million bushels larger than the average of recent private forecasts, it was smaller than many traders had expected.

Opening 1/8 higher to 1/4 lower, May 1.38 1/2-1/4, July 1.25 1/2-1/4, wheat then rose about a cent. Corn started 1/4 up to 1/2 off, May 1.20 1/4-1/2, July 1.20 1/4-1/2, and later advanced.

High Association Party Is Success

The annual Salem High School association party held Friday evening in the High school was termed a success, with 600 boys and girls and faculty members attending the event.

An indoor circus on the auditorium stage, opening the evening's entertainment, was followed by a dance in the gymnasium. Refreshments were served. Music was furnished by Don Harvey's orchestra. The gym was gaily decorated.

The circus featured the antics of two clowns, tricks by trained dogs and a pony, stunts by an acrobatic troupe and songs by a 40-inch midget from Ringling brothers circus.

FORD PREDICTS HIGHER WAGES

Will Demonstrate Real Competition After
Strike, He Says

"Labor union organizations are the worst thing that ever struck the earth because they take away a man's independence," Ford said. "Financiers are behind the unions and their object is to kill competition so as to reduce the income of workers, and eventually bring on war."

Discussing the relationship between employer and employees, Ford said:

"We're all workers together, the men and I. There shouldn't be any bargaining or dealing necessary. Our company pays the best wages it can and always has."
